One day Introduction Course In International Commercial Arbitration

Saturday 16 December 2017

Moscow, Kadashevskaya nab., 14, bldg. 3

Presented by the European Branch of the CI Arb

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb) is an international centre of excellence for the practice and profession of alternative dispute resolution (ADR). Our growing membership of 15,000 is based across 133 countries and supported by an international network of 38 branches. CI Arb provides education and training for arbitrators, mediators and adjudicators. It also acts as a global hub for practitioners, policy makers, academics and those in business, supporting the global promotion, facilitation and development of all ADR methods. CI Arb offers a range of resources including guidance, support, advice, networking and promotional opportunities, as well as facilities for hearings, meetings and other events.

The Arbitration Center at the Institute of Modern Arbitration is a permanent arbitration institution that administers arbitration in accordance with the effective legislation of the Russian Federation. The Arbitration Center is a subdivision of the Autonomous Non-Profit Organisation "Institute of Modern Arbitration". The Institute was founded by the Russian Federal Chamber of Lawyers, The LF Academy, LLC, and the Foundation for Legal Education and Research. The Institute of Modern Arbitration and the Arbitration Center have the right to perform the functions of permanent arbitration institution (PAI) as of April 27th 2017. The Arbitration Center at the Institute of Modern Arbitration is among the first arbitration institutions that obtained such right and to administer arbitration according to the Federal Law in The Russian Federation.

What is the aim of the course?

This course presents an understanding of the general principles of ADR and international arbitration. The course will provide candidates with an introduction to the legal framework and good practice procedures in international arbitration.

What are the learning outcomes?

On successful completion of this course candidates will be able to:

- Understand the background to international arbitration;
- Describe the process and procedure of international arbitration;
- Understand international arbitration in the context of other forms of dispute resolution.

Entry requirements:

The course is intended for candidates who:

- Are new to the field of international arbitration
- Wish to learn more about international arbitration and its benefits to users
- Wish to become an Associate member of CI Arb

English Language Competence - CI Arb training and assessment is carried out in English. It is therefore essential that candidates are proficient in both written and spoken English. Where English is not a candidate's first language it is recommended that they have achieved a score of 94-101 in the (TOEFL) or similar system. CI Arb issues this advice as a guideline and not as a requirement. Candidates who do not have this standard of English may be disadvantaged.

How will I be assessed?

The assessment will be carried out by an online multiple choice test, accessed via Moodle. Results will be available immediately on completion of the test. The pass mark is 55 per cent. On passing, candidates can print their own certificate.
